

The Australian National University, Charles Darwin University, Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory

2004 ANNUAL HISTORY COLLOQUIUM

The colloquium takes place in the theatre, Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory, Bullocky Point, Darwin on Saturday 9 October 2004 and Sunday 10 October 2004. Each presentation is of twenty or forty minutes in duration, followed by ten or twenty minutes of questions and discussion. All interested persons are most welcome to attend. There is no charge but attendees need to pay for their own refreshments and lunch. For further information please contact Professor David Carment on 89466744 or David.Carment@cdu.edu.au. The program below may be altered. If that happens, a revised program will be circulated to the original recipients before the end of September 2004.

SATURDAY 9 OCTOBER

SESSION A

Chair – Professor David Carment, CDU

9.00 AM – 9.10 AM: Welcome

9.10 AM – 10.10 AM: Stephen Gray, CDU, Law in a lawless town: the development of criminal law in the Northern Territory

10.10 AM – 10.40 AM: Dr Wendy Beresford-Maning, CDU, The mission in practice: the development of western missionary activity

10.40 AM – 11.10 AM: Morning tea/coffee, Cornucopia Café

11.10 AM to 11.40 AM: Anne Scrimgeour, CDU, The schooling of Indigenous people in the 1840s as a component of South Australia's 'civilising project'

11.40 AM – 12.10 PM: Robyn Maynard, CDU, The world of Anna Wilcken - some insights into the lives of eighteenth century women

LUNCH

12.10 PM – 1.30 PM: Cornucopia Café

SESSION B

Chair – Dr Kirsty Douglas, ANU

1.30 PM – 2.00 PM: Tiffany Shellam, ANU, First encounters: King George's Sound

2.00 PM – 2.30 PM: Silvano Jung, CDU, Linking the Empire: Australia's flying boat connection

2.30 PM – 3.00 PM: Alan Davis, CDU, Frontier of convenience

3.00 PM – 3.30 PM: Afternoon tea/coffee, Cornucopia Café

3.30 PM – 4.00 PM: Helen Spiers, CDU, From meatworks to mining: a history of Jabiru Area School

SUNDAY 10 OCTOBER

SESSION C

Chair – Dr Bill Wilson, CDU

9.00 AM – 10.00 AM: Professor David Carment, CDU, Clare Martin: the discrete revolutionist

10.00 AM – 11.00 AM: Dr Kirsty Douglas, ANU, Putting down roots or stealing the past? Nationalism, identity and deep time in Australia

11.00 AM – 11.30 AM: Morning tea/coffee, Cornucopia Café

11.30 AM – midday: Dr Eve Gibson, CDU, Hats and hardships: early post war building in Darwin